Did you know? Utah voter participation is very low during the legislative session, and representatives often highly value feedback or direction from constituents who are involved.

Your voice during this time can significantly affect important matters, especially when coupled with knowledge of the actual bills and issues.

Please join us to learn about the bills and issues and how to contact and work with representatives.

These reviews are intended to be informational, collaborative, and not partisan to any one political viewpoint. Attendee participation is welcome.

We Believe

It is possible to discuss differences and learn truth through meaningful interaction, discussion, sharing and listening in a civil manner.
